RENEW Question for Sharing

The readings on this fifth Sunday of Easter present us with themes of dwelling places and home. As we make our way to our eternal home in heaven, we are called to make our dwelling here – whether we are in a household of one or bursting at the seams – a true “domestic church.” While our Lord has prepared the perfect spot in heaven for each one of us who remain faithful to Him, for our time on earth, we are called to be good stewards of our earthly dwellings, making our homes true places where we honor God with our prayer, our thoughtfulness to each other, and our generous hospitality to all.

For adults:
If our homes are to be the “domestic church,” how does our particular home honor the Lord by how we live?

For children:
When do you feel close to Jesus in your home?

LEARN

Show me your ways, Lord, teach me your paths.
Psalm 25:4

A 60-Year Tradition in the Pines

Camp Pendola was founded by the Diocese of Sacramento in 1959 and is still in operation with a third-generation campers. Children of previous campers enjoy some of the same activities their parents and grandparents enjoyed. Over 20,000 campers have slept in the cabins, swam in the pond, and hiked the hills around camp. While discovering the beauty of creation all around us, campers have formed relationships with each other and God. Don't let your camper miss out on a summer up in the pines! Get more information and register at www.pendola.org. If you have any questions, please contact Jennifer Campbell at (916) 733-0135 or by email at jcampbell@scd.org.
