RENEW Question for Sharing

In today's Gospel from Matthew, our Lord shares the Parable of the Sower who scatters seed on many different kinds of land. This is a wonderful analogy for the stewardship way of living. demonstrating the slow and steady yet powerful effect this lifestyle will have on those who fully embrace it. When we give the best of our time, talent and treasure to serve God and others, we create lives filled with that rare "good soil" described in the parable and that is needed for the Kingdom of God to thrive.

For adults:
How do you produce "abundant fruit" through the way you live each day?

For children:
How do you try to give God "the best" each day?

LEARN

Show me your ways, Lord, teach me your paths.
Psalms 25:4

SERVE

Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms.
1 Peter 4:10

We Hope You Will Consider Serving

Christianity is not a passive faith. Instead Scripture is clear in calling each of us to active service: "Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms." (1 Peter 4:10)

We have many opportunities in which you can share your talents with our parish. We would love to have more greeters to welcome people before Mass begins! Go to www.saintrobertsac.org/serve and you can make your choice online or email stewardship@saintrobertsac.org.

GIVE

You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and ... your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.
