

A report on our journey together as grateful and generous stewards of all God has entrusted to us.

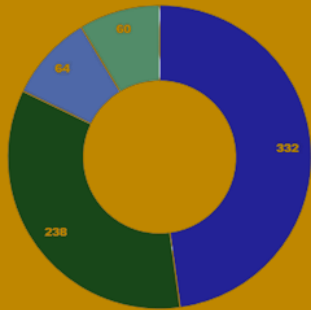

TIME

God gives each of us 24 hours in a day and 168 hours in a week in which we need to balance all the often-competing demands in our life.

Aware that our lives are gifts from God, do we make time with God a priority? Do we attend Mass each Sunday? Do we pray each day, thanking God for the blessings given and offering Him our needs and the needs of others?

TALENT

Our talents are special and distinctive abilities that God gives us. Despite our modesty, we all possess unique talents.

Do we use these God-given talents to make our Catholic parish a real community of friends, working together in service to the Lord and each other?

TREASURE

We all have different levels of income; as such, we are not called to equal giving but rather to equal sacrifice to build God's Kingdom.

Where does God fall in our list of spending priorities? Do we have a purposeful, intentional plan for how much we will honor God with the treasure He has entrusted to us?
