RENEW Question for Sharing

“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” -Luke 12:15

In today’s Gospel, Jesus offers a warning to those who pursue leisure and pleasure as their goal in life without concern for the poor and less fortunate. He tells the parable of the wealthy landowner who, upon yielding an exceptionally profitable harvest one year, determines that he will live the rest of his days in relaxation; to eat, drink and be merry. God calls the miser a “fool” and lets him know that his greed and self-indulgence will not bring him the security he seeks. Good stewards acknowledge that the money and possessions entrusted to them are to be used to further the mission of Jesus Christ.

For adults to consider:
Does our personal lifestyle bring “good news to the poor” (Luke 4:18)?

For children to consider:
Why does God want us to take care of the poor?
